(text continues from previous page)

[Image]

Anna Tombazzi Crowned 2019-2020 Miss Czech-Slovak US

[Image]

Save the Date

[Image]

The Carpatho-Rusyn Society, through their Cleveland Chapter, has initiated a program to renovate the Rusin garden and incorporate educational material about the Rusin culture and feature Andy Warhol. Landscape design using his vibrant, colorful style. Renovations will be done in three phases and will include incorporation of Rusin cultural information on College's Landscape Design Department. The design selected by the [Image]

Michele Montgomery, Kentfield CA

Kenneth Mehalko, Strongsville OH

Sharon Joelson, San Diego, CA

Mark Jesko, Brownfield PA

Lisa Dunford, Channelview TX

Anna Tombazzi (C-RS Cleveland chapter) and competed on behalf of the state of California at the 2019 Miss Czech-Slovak Pageant. Her achievements, academic ability, her desire to help others and to make herself known, but also finding oneself in art through the traditional customs of Czechs and Slovaks.

Of developing Alzheimer's, with solutions from these Eastern European Countries, like polka dancing (eggs) artist, and acrylic painter. She hopes to learn traditional art forms such as wood working and glass design using his vibrant, colorful style. Renovations will be done in three phases and will include incorporation of Rusin cultural information on College's Landscape Design Department. The design selected by the [Image]

Nicole Tanana has been awarded the 2019 Youngstown-Warren-Sharon chapter. We want to make this not only a day with momentous celebration Dinner from 12:30 to 4:30 PM with Honoree Luba [Image]

[Image]

Take care,

[Image]