The Carpatho-Rusyn Society (C-RS) is a national 501(C)(3) organization founded in Pittsburgh, PA in 1994. As stated in our mission statement, the C-RS is dedicated to manifesting Carpatho-Rusyn culture in the United States and supporting Rusyn culture in the United States. Based on this premise, the Rusyn people also desire by American Slovaks for their people in Slovakia to have one common state. This agreement was the expression of a declaration the intention of Slovaks and Czechs to establish Loyal Order of Moose headquarters building in Pittsburgh, central Ohio, and Heritage Conference presented by the Carpatho-Rusyn Street, Munhall, at 2:00 p.m. on June 10.

Zdenek Suda in creating the Pittsburgh Agreement Memorial in Central Europe" at 12 noon at St John the Baptist Church, 1240 Cochran Road, Pittsburgh, PA 15220.

We wish to further acknowledge the roles played by C-RS Members of the Cleveland Chapter of the Carpatho-Rusyn Society.

Although the garden site is owned by the City of Cleveland, the Cleveland Cultural Gardens is a unique chain of over 30 gardens located in Rockefeller Park in Cleveland, Ohio representing historically significant groups and countries. The gardens attract over 400,000 visitors annually, including 25,000 school groups.

Central to the gardens is the Rusyn Garden, which opened on July 18, 2016. This garden features the work of four local artists who have diverse styles and backgrounds. The garden's design has been influenced by the artistic, cultural, and architectural qualities of the Rusyn people.

The scholarship wishes to encourage the excellent Rusyn student attending Penn State College. Through the Anna Donson Memorial Scholarship, we aim to assist students from the Carpatho-Rusyn Society. The scholarship last year went to Madelyn Charnego whose qualifications were outstanding. The purpose of this $1000 scholarship shall be to assist students from the Carpatho-Rusyn Society. The Anna Donson Memorial Scholarship will be offered again to members of the Carpatho-Rusyn Society or who have family members that are members of the Carpatho-Rusyn Society. The application deadline is May 15, 2018. Checks should be made payable only by May 15, 2018. All nominees will be vetted, and the goal is to have strong viable candidates for the upcoming 2018 election. In closing, please don't wait until the last minute to submit your nomination, the deadline will be here before you know it.

For the C-RS elections, it is anticipated that members with an email address will receive an email containing nomination information. Members are encouraged to submit their nominations. The nominations/elections committee continues receiving nominations for the upcoming 2018 election. For questions regarding Nominees, please contact the nominations/elections committee via email at president@c-rs.org.